

New Brunswick Smart Communities Symposium
Fredericton Inn, Fredericton, New Brunswick

REGISTER
FREE OF CHARGE

Wednesday, March 28, 2018

8:00 to 9:00 am	Registration and coffee
9:00 to 9:10 am	Eric Megarity Past President, Cities of New Brunswick Association Welcome Mayor Adam Lordon City of Miramichi and President of Cities of New Brunswick Association Welcome
9:10 to 9:40 am	Peter Corbyn Project Manager, CNBA Smart Communities' Project Report Findings and Potential Projects
9:40 to 10:30 am	Aidan O'Riordan ICT Program Manager, Cork, Ireland Cork Smart Gateway - Innovating, Creating, Connecting
10:30 to 10:50 am	Break
10:50 to 11:30 am	Valerie Kelly Manager of Corporate Systems Renewal, City of Fredericton Digital Fredericton Strategy
11:30 to 12:00 pm	Supplier Introductions Tradeshow participants each do a two minute pitch
12:00 to 12:40 pm	Lunch
12:40 to 1:10 pm	Tradeshow
1:10 to 2:10 pm	Barb Scully Connected Communities Coordinator, Parkland County, Alberta Rural Internet Enabling Economic Opportunities and Social Inclusion
2:10 to 2:40 pm	Jake Arsenault Black Arcs, Fredericton, New Brunswick Using Technology to Engage Citizens in Urban Planning
2:40 to 3:00 pm	Tradeshow / break
3:00 to 3:40 pm	Sandi McKinnon Executive Director, Great Fredericton Social Inclusion Civitech - Crowdsourcing Community Challenges and Opportunities
3:40 to 4:20 pm	Luc Richard Director, Organization Excellence, City of Dieppe, New Brunswick Participatory Budgeting Project
4:20 to 4:30 pm	Wrap-up

The New Brunswick Smart Communities Project and this Symposium focus on providing assistance and guidance to any community or region in our province interested in developing a sustainable and long term smart strategy. This project is supported by the provincial and federal governments, the Smart Cities Challenge is sponsored by Infrastructure Canada. Lessons learned from this event and project can certainly help enhance Smart City Challenge submissions. Contact peter@nbsgc.ca for information.